BRDB Children's Home (http://brdbrotary.org)

BRDB Rotary Children's Residence has both that heart and soul in the manner in which it treats the innocent children at risk. The Residence could easily be mistaken for an international school, given its contemporary structure, the spaciousness that calls out for you to "let loose" without any inhibitions and the modern furniture and fittings. The Residence boasts of a kindergarten which is managed by experienced teachers, a spacious dining area, a library, computer room, study room, an organic garden and separate dormitories for the girls and boys. A visit to the residence will leave you in awe and one can't help but be impressed with the thoughts that have gone behind this Jewel. Open, on a free of charge basis, to all children at risk aged between 3 years to 10 years, the Residence is keen to take on more children and you can be assured that the children will be on the path to a better life.
